YOU'LL BE IN EXCELLENT COMPANY

Jim Clemmer, Graham Lowe, Brent Pederson from Hay Group, and Jody Urquhart will all be sharing their combined wisdom and knowledge at the 2012 IPMA-Canada National Conference on May 27—30, Delta Regina Hotel, Regina, Saskatchewan.

For nearly 30 years Jim Clemmer's practical leadership approaches have been inspiring action and achieving results around the world.

His keynote presentations and workshops/retreats, six best-selling books, columns, and newsletters have helped hundreds of thousands of people become better leaders in the home and at the office.

10,080. That's the number of days we put in at work over a typical 40 year career. Not surprisingly then, how we feel about our jobs spills over into just about every other facet of our lives. Which leads us to the all important question: just what is it that we really want from our employment? Dr. Graham Lowe is a leading international expert on work and will share his wisdom on creating higher quality and more productive workplaces.

Leadership, relationship building, and results-orientation – these are the key strengths of Brent Pederson, a senior Hay Group consultant, specializing in organizational effectiveness, strategic talent management and leadership development. Brent helps organizations work by selecting, developing, and retaining the right leadership talent to improve performance at the individual, team and organizational levels.

All work and no say— is that how it feels where you work? If so, Jody Urquhart is the motivational speaker for you. Jody is passionate about spreading the message of making work purposeful and fun. She is the author of the book All Work & No SAY and writes a syndicated column called the Joy of Work, which is published in over 40 magazines and trade journals. Her mission is to help motivate company employees to derive more meaning and satisfaction
