

Association of Administrative Assistants

Are you looking for an Administrative Professional to join your team?

The Association of Administrative Assistants is a Canadian organization founded in 1951 encouraging members to continue their education and enhance their career opportunities.

We provide advertising on our website for distribution to our members and non-members: Distribution to Association Members by e-mail and posting on the Home Page of the Association's website under Careers (public access) Fee: $200.00.

Your employees can also check out the opportunity to further their education through the Qualified Administrative Assistants program. Universities and colleges across Canada offer the program through lectures, on-line, and correspondence for completion of the program on a full or part-time basis. The professional designation, Qualified Administrative Assistant (Q.A.A.), is awarded to members who complete the requirements of the Q.A.A. program.
