

Skinner says "Be Positive" - Jan 21, 2009

Innovation, Trade and Rural Development Minister Shawn Skinner had a positive message for those attending the International Personnel Management Association - Canada Newfoundland and Labrador Chapter luncheon this afternoon. Shawn Skinner says the economy of Newfoundland and Labrador is still resilient. He says we will be able to stand up to it and economy will recover. President of the Chapter John Peddle says luncheon's like these serve two purposes - to educate members and to give them the opportunity to network.

